

Educating for a Bright Future – July 12-18, 2019 NHE Conference Italy

|                                     |   |   |  |   |
|-------------------------------------|---|---|--|---|
|                                     | ARRIVAL DAY - Friday, July 12, 2019 Afternoon Registration opens 3 pm - 8:00 pm Dinner9:00 pm Welcoming Program with Christian Franceschini, Cristina Terribile, and Dada Shambhushivananda   |   |  |   |
| 6:00-7:00                           | Yoga Asana Class - optional   |   |  |   |
| 7:00-8:15                           | Group Meditation - optional   |   |  |   |
| 8:15-9:00                           | Breakfast   |   |  |   |
| 9:00-9:30                           | Nature time and walk to plenary auditorium  |   |  |   |
|                                     | Day one – Saturday, July 13  | Day two – Sunday, July 14  | Day three – Monday, July 15   | Day four – Tuesday, July 16  |
| MorningsPlenaries9:30-11:45 | Neohumanist Responses to Global ChallengesWhat are the values and new ways of thinking needed to bring about the paradigm shift we now know is necessary for creating a bright future?Neohumanism: Embodying Knowledge for a Better TomorrowAmal JacobsonA Philosophy of Education for the AnthropoceneKathleen Kesson | Developing Inner Resources to Prepare for an Unknown FutureHow can we build the inner resources and ecological wisdom of students and teachers to prepare for a rapidly changing world and unpredictable future?From Elephant to Ant: Zooming in from Macro to MicroEric JacobsonReflective Teachers, Reflective Learners: Weaving permaculture principles into curriculum to develop Neohumanist consciousnessDidi Ananda Devapriya | Integrating Science, Spirituality and the ArtsWhat role can spirituality and the arts play as vehicles of transcendence, social cohesion, and ecological wisdom in education?Recent developments and future directions in the science of shaping and refining human experienceSucharit KatyalBringing Rationalistic Spirituality into Public Schools in South TyrolChristian FranceschiniShrii PR Sarkar’s Aesthetics of LifeDidi Anandarama | New narratives and alternative visionsHow can we generate new narratives and visions that lead us towards positive futures?From Theory to Policymaking: Gaming NeohumanismSohail Inayatullah and Satya Tanner |
|                                     |   |   |  | Day five – Wednesday July 17Closing program followed by orientation for Nature Outings or Strategic Planning MeetingsDada ShambhushivanandaDidi Ananda DevapriyaChristian Franceschini and Sid Jordan |
| 12-3:00                             | Group Meditation, Lunch, Free time.   |   |  |   |
| 3- 4:30pm                           | Workshop Slot 1  |   |  |   |
|                                     | Change of schedule on Sunday. From 2-3:30 pm Fiesta Neoumanista (Showcase and Networking Session for everyone) followed by one workshop slot from 4- 6:00Change of schedule on Wednesday, July 17 th . Afternoon slot 2:30-5:30 for nature outings or strategic planning meetings.  |   |  |   |
| 4:45-6:15                           | Workshop Slot 2  |   |  |   |
| 6:30-8pm                            | Group Meditation  |   |  |   |
| 8:00 pm                             | Dinner and Relaxing Together. On July 17 th there will be a Cultural Program.  |   |  |   |
|                                     | DEPARTURE – Thursday, July 18 – 10 am  |   |  |   |